

1. How do animals communicate?
 - a. By using sounds
 - b. By using body language
 - c. By using both sounds and body language
 - d. By using other methods
2. Which of the following is an example of animal communication?
 - a. A dog barking
 - b. A cat meowing
 - c. A bird singing
 - d. All of the above
3. What is the purpose of animal communication?
 - a. To warn others of danger
 - b. To attract mates
 - c. To establish social hierarchies
 - d. All of the above
4. How do animals use body language to communicate?
 - a. By making sounds
 - b. By making facial expressions
 - c. By moving their bodies
 - d. All of the above
5. Which of the following is an example of animal communication using body language?
 - a. A dog wagging its tail
 - b. A cat arching its back
 - c. A bird ruffling its feathers
 - d. All of the above
6. How do animals use sounds to communicate?
 - a. By making noises
 - b. By making vocalizations
 - c. By making both noises and vocalizations

d. None of the above

7. Which of the following is an example of animal communication using sounds?

a. A dog barking

b. A cat meowing

c. A bird singing

d. All of the above

8. How do animals use other methods to communicate?

a. By using smells

b. By using tastes

c. By using both smells and tastes

d. None of the above

9. Which of the following is an example of animal communication using other methods?

a. A dog urinating

b. A cat spraying

c. A bird preening

d. All of the above

10. What is the most important factor in animal communication?

a. The message being conveyed

b. The method of communication

c. The context in which the communication is taking place

d. All of the above

Answer Key:

1. c

2. d

3. d

4. d

5. d

6. c

7. d

8. c

9. d

10. d