

1. Which of the following is not a factor that can affect ecosystem management?
 - A. The type of ecosystem
 - B. The size of the ecosystem
 - C. The location of the ecosystem
 - D. The resources available
2. Which of the following is not a goal of ecosystem management?
 - A. To conserve biodiversity
 - B. To improve ecosystem function
 - C. To provide economic benefits
 - D. To provide social benefits
3. Which of the following is not a tool that can be used in ecosystem management?
 - A. Regulation
 - B. Education
 - C. Restoration
 - D. Mitigation
4. Which of the following is not a type of ecosystem management?
 - A. Active
 - B. Passive
 - C. Intensive
 - D. Extensive
5. Which of the following is not a reason why ecosystem management is important?
 - A. To conserve biodiversity
 - B. To improve ecosystem function
 - C. To provide economic benefits
 - D. To provide social benefits
6. Which of the following is not a challenge that can be faced when managing ecosystems?
 - A. The type of ecosystem
 - B. The size of the ecosystem
 - C. The location of the ecosystem
 - D. The resources available
7. Which of the following is not a benefit of ecosystem management?
 - A. It can help to conserve biodiversity.
 - B. It can help to improve ecosystem function.
 - C. It can provide economic benefits.
 - D. It can provide social benefits.

1. D
2. D
3. D
4. D
5. D
6. D
7. D