

1. What is the main difference between 2D and 3D viewing?

A. 2D viewing is limited to a single plane, while 3D viewing can encompass multiple planes.

B. 2D viewing is limited to a single viewpoint, while 3D viewing can encompass multiple viewpoints.

C. 2D viewing is limited to a single object, while 3D viewing can encompass multiple objects.

Answer: B