

1) What is the definition of orthogonality?

- A) Two vectors are orthogonal if they are perpendicular.
- B) Two vectors are orthogonal if they are equal.
- C) Two vectors are orthogonal if they are linearly independent.
- D) Two vectors are orthogonal if they are not parallel.

Answer: A) Two vectors are orthogonal if they are perpendicular.